Our Innovative Approach to Managing Risk

Whatever the investment goals—from protecting assets to aggressively pursuing growth—we believe that predicting and managing risk is the key to potential success. That’s the philosophy and purpose behind L&S Risk Pulse™.

L&S Risk Pulse™ is our proprietary, real-time evaluation of overall market risk. Based on quantitative and qualitative analysis, it’s a rigorous and deeply thoughtful process that weighs market risks in a unique way to help us determine when we should take steps to try to reduce downside exposure and safeguard portfolios. We rely on it to inform all our investment decisions in an effort to better serve investor goals.

The L&S Risk Pulse™ Investment Process

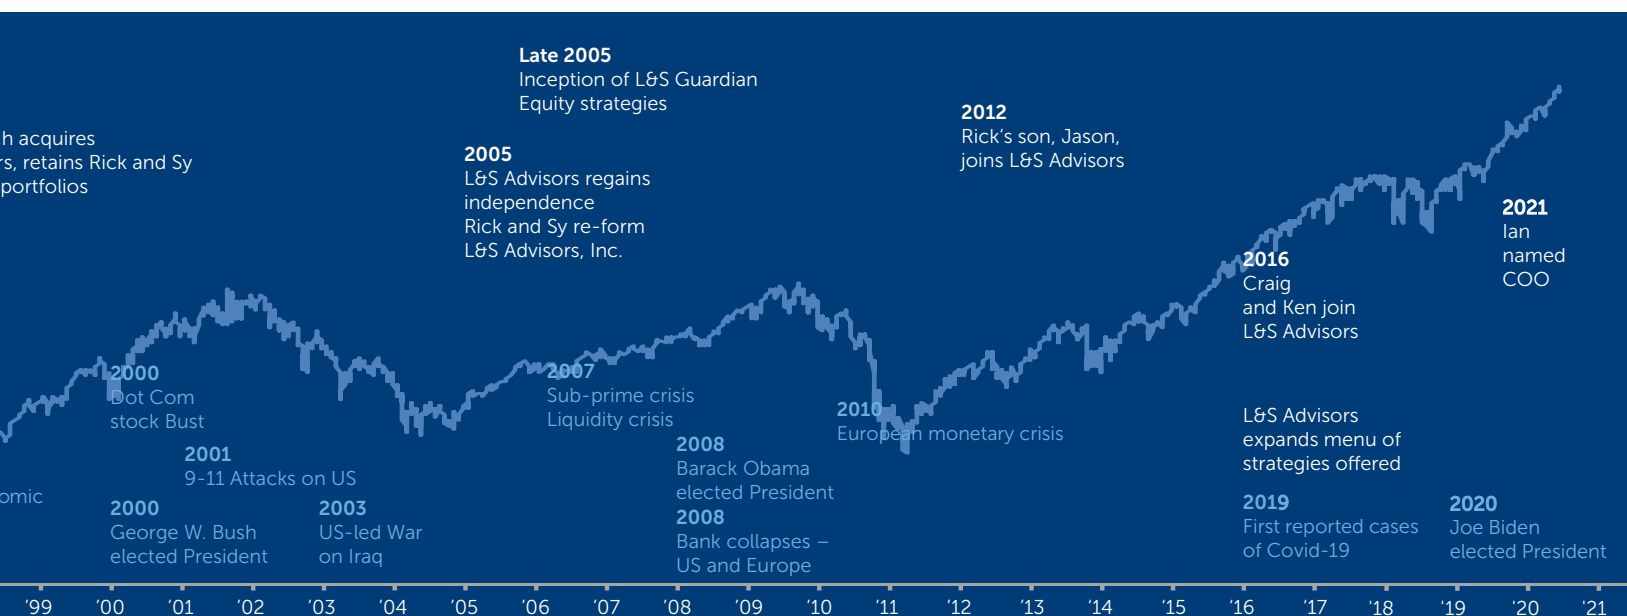

L&S Risk Pulse™ starts with extensive, continuous economic research and risk tracking as we gather data from a wide range of financial databases and industry sources. Then we distill our research into a dynamic, real time proprietary mosaic of data points which we continuously monitor, analyze, and refine.

Using our own expert insights to filter through the noise, we focus in on what we believe to be the most important current gauges of risk. Based on this combination of hard data and professional experience, we deliver our current evaluation of market risk—along with a detailed analysis explaining our thinking and insights.

Our portfolio managers apply the current L&S Risk Pulse™ evaluation to their respective strategies making adjustments as necessary in an effort to minimize downside exposure and maximize upside opportunities according to their unique investment objectives. And at every step, we remain vigilant, taking action when we spot warning signs.

Market Experience You Can Count On

When it comes to investment expertise, our long history speaks for itself. For nearly 40 years, L&S Advisors has been seeking to preserve capital and deliver stable returns across a broad range of economic environments and market cycles.

Our leadership team has navigated through punishing bear markets and booming, sustained rallies. While our strategies and methods have changed over time, one thing has remained constant. From our founding in 1979 to the present day, our investment philosophy has strived to remain grounded—first and foremost—in risk management.

L&S Strategies in Focus

Our Tactical Equity Income (TEI) and Tactical Equity Opportunities (TEO) strategies seek to offer risk management and downside protection while aiming for steady growth. Both aim to maximize returns in low-risk markets by investing in what we believe to be promising equities and preserve capital in riskier climates by moving at any time up to 100% cash.

L&S Guardian Equity Strategies

Seeks growth through concentrated tactical participation with strong focus on capital preservation

This tactical long/cash approach allows us to pursue both absolute and total returns while seeking lower volatility, leverage, and liquidity risks associated with other market strategies. It's all guided by our proprietary Risk Pulse™. By keeping a close watch on the macroeconomic, cyclical, political, and demographic forces and trends that define the investment environment, we believe we're in the position to spot red flags early and make portfolio adjustments in order to potentially minimize downside loss.
