

Jason Jay Scott, Esq.

Chief Compliance Officer and General Counsel

Jason Jay Scott is a seasoned financial and legal services executive, with over twenty years of experience in operational management and systems in highly regulated industries. As CCO of L&S Advisors, Jason is responsible for the designing, implementing, and monitoring of the processes and systems at L&S to ensure L&S complies with all applicable laws and regulations. In addition, in his role as General Counsel, Jason anticipates and identifies legal issues for the firm and advises senior management in developing legal strategies on a variety of corporate matters. Jason also takes a leading role in shaping the marketing and business development for the firm.

Prior to joining L&S Advisors, Jason served as Vice President of Business Applications at Kurtzman Carson Consultants (KCC). Over the course of nine years, he was instrumental in growing KCC from a small boutique start-up into one of the foremost legal and financial services firms in the corporate restructuring industry. Before that, Jason worked as a corporate transactional and litigation attorney.

Jason holds a B.A. in political science from the University of Southern California and a J.D. from Loyola Marymount University. He is admitted to practice law in California and holds a Series 65 Uniform Investment Adviser Law securities license.
