

Bennett Gross

President

As President of L&S Advisors, Bennett Gross is responsible for managing and overseeing all aspects of the firm as well as guiding its growth into new opportunities. He also serves on the firm's Investment Committee, helping to establish investment guidelines for the firm's growing list of clients. In everything he does, Bennett follows one rule above all else: "Always do the very best you can for your clients, and always put their needs first."

Bennett has more than thirty years of experience in the investment management business. Prior to joining L&S, he served as Investment Strategist for EP Wealth Advisors. Before that, he was the Director of Wealth Management and the Director of Equities for a multibillion-dollar registered investment advisor (RIA) based in Santa Monica. Bennett was also the Chair of the Investment Committee and the Managing Director of Equities for a billion-dollar advisory firm based in Century City. He began his career in financial services at Morgan Stanley working with ultra-high-net-worth investors.

Bennett earned a B.A. in economics from the University of California at Irvine, and a M.B.A. from the University of California at Berkeley, where he was elected to the Beta Gamma Sigma honors society. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation, and the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA) designation.
